Sen. Patterson celebrating Reading Month

Lansing – In celebration of March is Reading Month, Sen. Bruce Patterson, R-Canton, will be reading to students at local elementary schools.

He will tour schools within the 7th District, kicking off the celebration March 1 at Chapman Elementary in Rockwood and Silver Springs Elementary in Northville.

“Reading is fundamental to education, especially at a young age,” Patterson said. “It is important for students to read regularly to expand their knowledge and imagination.”

For more information on Reading Month or to book the Senator for a reading date, please contact his office at 517-373-7350.
